- a) All the betting combinations which include the First and Second place and all the runners in the Dead Heat in any order are winners.

If in the event of the Dead Heat to Fourth place, the winning combinations will be:

- a) All the betting combinations which include the First, Second, Third place and any of the runners in the Dead Heat are winners.

If for any unforeseen circumstance less than 4 runners cross the finish line and the race is called official, a winning superfecta wager must have the actual finishing runners in order, ignoring the balance of the selection.

In the case of a race with four or more scratched runners, the superfecta wager is void and shall cause refund on all superfecta tickets. The house would then make the announcement of the wager that would be substituting the superfecta.

If there's no winning ticket on the Superfecta, the pool is automatically added to the next race with Superfecta pool (carryover), either if it's the same day performance or the next.

If one of your selections is scratched, all bets which include the scratched greyhound will be refunded.

Pick 3

To collect the Pick Three prize:

The Pick Three bet consists of selecting the winners of three consecutive races designated with Pick Three pool.

In the event that a greyhound is scratched in the Pick three sequence, the actual favorite on the official tote board of that race will substitute the scratched selection.

In the event that two or more greyhounds are considered favorites and share the exact odds on the official tote board when betting is closed, the substitute greyhound will be the one with the lowest number on the official program.

All greyhounds involved in a Dead Heat to Win are winners.

In the event that a race in the Pick Three sequence is canceled or declared no race, all greyhounds in that race are considered winners.

In the event that two races in the Pick Three sequence are canceled or declared no race, all greyhounds involved in those races are considered winners; payoff is for the tickets with the winner of the one official race in the Pick Three sequence.

In the event that three races of the Pick Three sequence are canceled or declared no race, a full refund shall be made of all money wagered.

If there's no winning ticket on the Pick Three, the pool is automatically added to the next race with Pick Three pool (carryover), either if it's the same day performance or the next.

4-9er or PICK SIX

To collect the 4-9ER of Pick Six prize:

You collect the Pick Six 4-9 if your bet is the only ticket with first place winner in six consecutive races designated with 4-9 or Pick Six wager, the minimum cost per bet is $2 dollars.

The 4-9er or Pick Six prize is made up from 100% of the net amount wagered on that card plus the reserved Jackpot.

In the case of a single winning ticket with the correct 6 1st place finishers in the 4-9er or Pick Six wager, there wont be a consolation prize.

In the case of no single winning ticket with the correct 6 1st place finishers in the 4-9er or Pick Six 10% of the net amount wagered on that card is added to the reserved jackpot and the remaining 90% is distributed as consolation prize. Such amount is referred to as the consolation pot.

CONSOLATION PRIZE

First Consolation. In the case of having two or more tickets with the highest number of correct picks without existing a single ticket with the 6 1st place picks on the 4-9er or Pick Six wager, the prize will be 60% of the consolation pot. The resulting amount will be divided equally among the tickets with the higher number of correct picks.

Second Consolation. The remaining 40% from the consolation pot will be awarded to the tickets obtaining the second highest number of correct picks. The resulting amount will be divided equally among the tickets with the second higher number of correct picks.

RESERVED JACKPOT

The reserved jackpot is made up of the 10% of the net amount wagered of the consecutive cards with two or more correct 6 1st place picks or no tickets with correct 6 1st place pick on the 4-9er or Pick Six wager.

The jackpot amount will continue to grow on every card until only a single ticket results with the correct 6 1st place pick on the 4-9er or Pick Six wager; when this happens, the reserved jackpot will be added to the net amount wagered on the 4-9er or Pick Six from that card and distributed as stated above.

SCRATCHED RUNNERS

If one or more of your selections are scratched in a 4-9er or Pick Six wager, the scratched selection will be substituted with the race favorite at the time the race is closed.

If at the closing of the race there are two or more substitution options with the same closing odds, the substitution will be made for the runner with the lowest post position among them.

DEAD HEATS

Each runner in a dead heat for win is considered a winner in the 4-9er or Pick Six wager.

CANCELLED RACES

In the event of having one or more cancelled races part of the 4-9er or Pick Six wager, all selections for such races will be considered correct picks.
